

STEPS TO GET AN OREGON DRIVER'S LICENSE

Before you follow the steps to get your driver's license, answer these questions:

● Are you under the age of 18?

If the answer is "yes," you will have different steps.

The instructions for you are on the DMV's Teen Site:

<https://www.oregon.gov/odot/DMV/TEEN/pages/index.aspx>

● Do you need help learning how to drive?

If you need help learning how to drive in Oregon, you can get an instruction permit and get driver training.

● Do you have a court issue?

If you are not able to get a driver's license because of a court issue, visit:

<https://www.courts.oregon.gov/courts/Pages/default.aspx>

to find the location of your court so you can get your issue fixed.

If you answered "no" to all three questions, follow these 10 steps.

*If you have a valid driver's license from another state, skip to step 3.

STEP 1

STUDY THE RULES OF DRIVING IN OREGON.

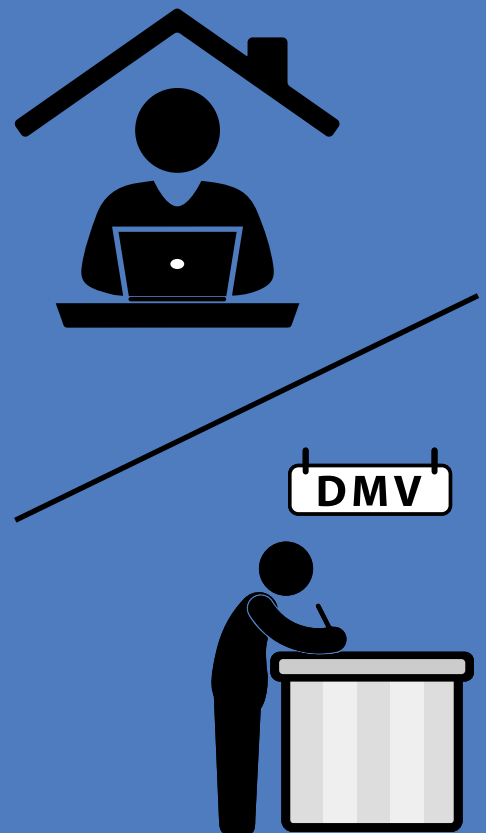

- You can get a copy of the Oregon Driver Manual at a local Driver and Motor Vehicle (DMV) office. You can also download a copy here: <https://www.oregon.gov/odot/Forms/DMV/37.pdf>.
- After you study, you can take a practice test here: https://www.oregon.gov/odot/DMV/Pages/practice_test.aspx.

STEP 2

FILL OUT THE APPLICATION ONLINE.

- If you have a computer and internet, go to DMV2U and begin to complete part of the application. Visit dmv2u.oregon.gov. This will save you a lot of time in the DMV office.
- If you do not have a computer or internet, you can skip this step and complete the application at the DMV office.
- If the online application is confusing or you do not want to do it, you can skip this step and complete the application at the DMV office.

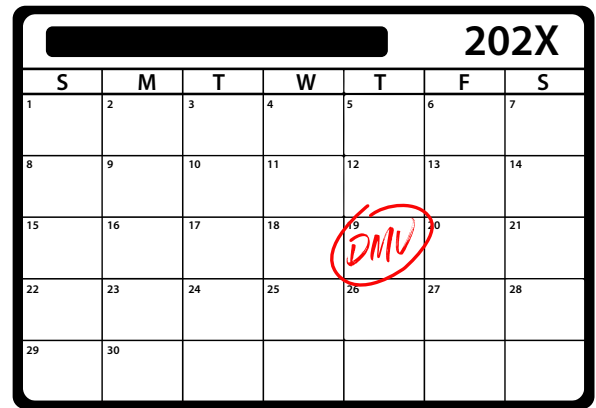

STEP 3

MAKE AN APPOINTMENT AT THE DMV OFFICE.

● You can do this online or by phone.

► If you want to make an appointment online, visit dmv2u.oregon.gov.

► If you want to make an appointment by phone, call 503-945-5000 and they will make the appointment for you at a DMV office near you.

STEP 4

GATHER YOUR DOCUMENTS AND BRING THEM WITH YOU TO YOUR APPOINTMENT AT THE DMV.

● You must show proof of your identity, date of birth and where you live in Oregon.

● Here are the documents you can bring to show proof of where you live (pick one):

- Any document accepted as proof of identity that also shows where you live (from Primary and Secondary Source Documents).
- A verbal statement from any person living at the same residence address you listed on your application. This person must be with you and show proof of residence address.
- Oregon vehicle title or registration card.
- Utility hookup order or utility statement issued by the service provider.

- ▶ Any document issued by a financial institution that includes your residence address.
- ▶ Any item delivered by the United States Postal Service, FedEx or UPS sent by a verifiable business or government agency.
- ▶ Any document issued by an insurance company or agent.
- ▶ Any document issued by an educational institution.
- ▶ A U.S. government-issued marriage certificate or license signed by a government official.
- ▶ Rental/lease agreement that includes the original signature of the lessor or landlord.
- ▶ A loan agreement, payment booklet/voucher or loan statement.
- ▶ Paycheck, paystub, W-2 or 1099 tax form.
- ▶ Medical or health benefits card.
- ▶ Unexpired professional license issued by an agency in the U.S.
- ▶ Current Certificate of Eligibility for Exchange Visitor (J-1) status (DS-2019).
- ▶ Approved letter from Oregon State Hospital, homeless shelter, transitional service provider or halfway house dated within 60 days of your application certifying your residence address.
- ▶ Letter on company letterhead from an employer certifying that you live at a non-business address owned by the business or corporation.

● There are two ways that you can show proof of identity. You can either show one document from the “primary” list or two documents from the “secondary” list.

○ List of “primary” documents you can bring to show proof of your identity (Pick one):

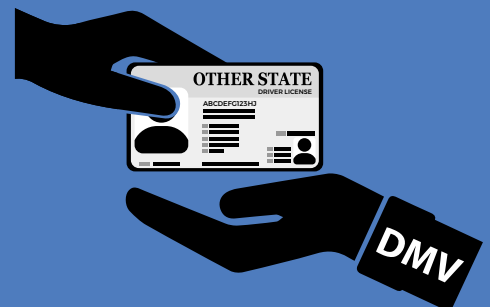

- ▶ Canadian birth certificate.
- ▶ Report of Birth Abroad issued by a U.S. consulate (U.S. Consular Report of Birth Abroad, FS-240).
- ▶ Foreign passport containing English or with English translation, not expired more than five years.
- ▶ Driver’s license issued by another state, U.S. territory or Canada, not expired more than one year. Must have your photograph. (Out-of-state, District of Columbia, U.S. territorial government or Canadian driver’s license, instruction permit or ID card that contains the applicant’s photograph, not expired more than one year unless hole-punched or marked “Not Valid as ID.”)
- ▶ Oregon driver’s license, instruction permit or ID card, not expired more than 13 years. It must have your photograph on it.
- ▶ Non-immigrant visa issued by the U.S. Department of State, not expired more than five years.
- ▶ Temporary immigrant visa (I-551) issued by the U.S. Department of State, not expired more than five years.
- ▶ Oregon Concealed Weapon Permit/Concealed Handgun License, not expired more than five years.
- ▶ A Consulate ID Card, approved by Oregon DMV, not expired more than five years.
- ▶ A letter verifying identity provided by an Oregon County Community Corrections agency, approved by Oregon DMV.
- ▶ A letter verifying identity provided by the Oregon Youth Authority, approved by Oregon DMV.

- ▶ A letter verifying identity provided by the U.S. District Court Probation Office, approved by Oregon DMV.
- ▶ Oregon Department of Corrections Release Identification Card, issued after April 30, 2005.
- ▶ U.S. immigration or naturalization documents, not expired more than five years, including:
 - U.S. Citizen Identification Card (I-179 and I-197)
 - Resident Alien Card or Permanent Resident Card (I-551)
 - Temporary Resident Identification Card (I-688)
 - Re-entry Permit Form (I-327)
 - Refugee Travel Document Form (I-157)
 - Employment Authorization Document (I-688A, I-688B, I-766)

○ List of “secondary” documents you can bring to show proof of your identity (Pick one):

- ▶ An Oregon student body card.
- ▶ U.S. or foreign certified school records.
- ▶ An Oregon Job Corps Identification Card.
- ▶ A W2 or 1099 tax form for the current tax year.
- ▶ A court document issued by a court in the U.S. that shows the applicant is a party to the judicial proceeding and which contains court signatures and seals. Acceptable documents are:
 - Gender, name change or both.
 - Adoption, guardianship, custody or child support.
 - Judgment of dissolution or annulment of marriage.
- ▶ A court document issued by a bankruptcy court that shows the applicant is a party to a bankruptcy proceeding.
- ▶ U.S. government-issued marriage license, domestic partnership or Certificate of Record of Marriage.
- ▶ Border Crossing Cards (DSP-150, I-185, I-186 and I-586).
- ▶ A birth certificate, marriage license, driver’s license, military ID card, passport or voter card issued by a foreign government.
- ▶ A letter issued by the Oregon Health Plan, if dated within the last year.
- ▶ U.S. military discharge papers.

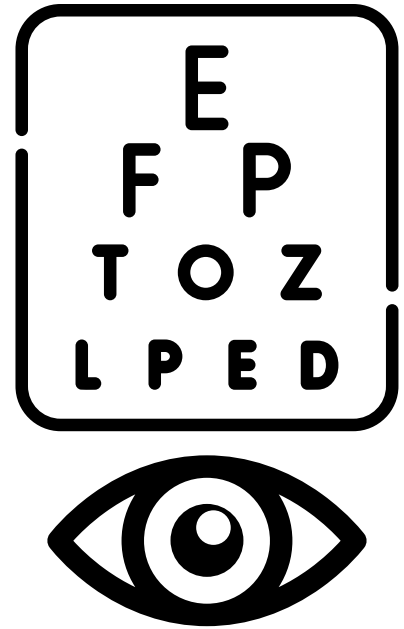

- Do not forget to bring money to pay the fees.
- If you have a driver’s license or ID card from another state, you must turn it in to the DMV.
- If you have an old driver’s license or ID card from Oregon, you must turn it in to the DMV.

STEP 5

TAKE AN EYE EXAM.

- The DMV will test your vision to make sure you can see clearly and drive safely. If you take the eye exam while wearing glasses or contacts, you will need to wear them when you drive.

STEP 6

PAY $5 AND TAKE YOUR KNOWLEDGE TEST FOR DRIVING IN OREGON.

- The test will be taken at a DMV office.
- The test is available on a computer or on paper. You can ask for an audio version of the test if you need it.
- There are 35 multiple-choice questions on the test. You have to answer 28 questions correctly to pass.
- The test is available in these languages:
 - Arabic
 - Chinese
 - English
 - Japanese
 - Korean
 - Russian
 - Spanish
 - Vietnamese
- If you are able to take the test in English, it may help you, because sometimes the translations are not easy to understand.

STEP 7

SCHEDULE YOUR DRIVING TEST.

- The driving test can be taken at a DMV office or at a private business that offers driving tests.
- If you want to schedule a driving test at a DMV office, you can do this online or by phone.
 - If you want to go online to make your appointment, visit dmv2u.oregon.gov/.
 - If you want to make your appointment by phone, call 503-945-5000.
- If you want to schedule a driving test at a private business, you can find the list of approved businesses and their phone numbers here: https://www.oregon.gov/odot/DMV/docs/Class_C_Testing_Business_Map.pdf.
 - Private businesses that offer driving tests have more appointments available, but they are much more expensive than taking the test at a DMV office.
 - ▶ It will cost $9 to take a driving test at a DMV office.
 - ▶ It will cost $60, $65 or $75 to take a driving test at a private business.

*If you have a valid driver's license from another state, skip to step 9.

STEP 8

TAKE YOUR DRIVING TEST.

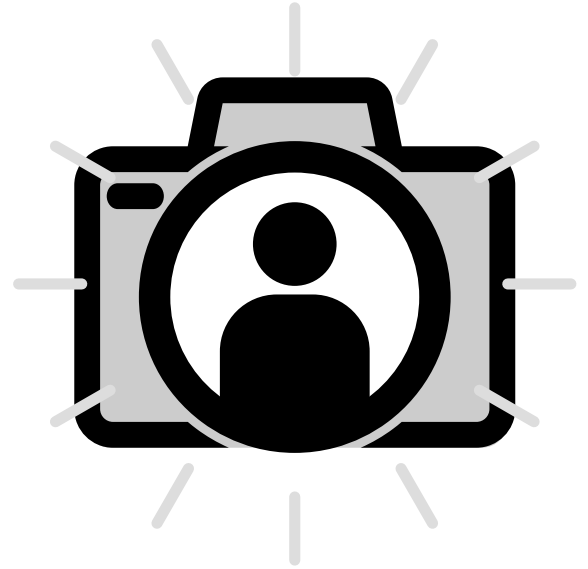

Go to the DMV office or to the private testing business where you made the appointment.

- If you are taking your driving test at a DMV office:
 - Bring a passenger vehicle with a current registration and valid proof of insurance.
To show proof of insurance, you can use any one of these:
 - ▶ A valid insurance card.
 - ▶ A current vehicle liability insurance policy or binder.
 - Pay $9 and take your driving test.
- If you are taking your driving test at a private business:
 - A car with insurance will be provided for you to take your driving test in. You will need to pay the fee directly to that business.

STEP 9

PAY $60 FOR THE LICENSE
AND HAVE YOUR PHOTO TAKEN AT A DMV OFFICE.

● You cannot wear these things in your photo:

- Eyeglasses.
- Sunglasses.
- Hat or head covering (other than religious).
- Contacts that change the appearance of the eye.
- Face paint.
- Stickers or bandages.
- Anything that covers your face or changes how you look.

STEP 10

GET YOUR DRIVER'S LICENSE AND CELEBRATE!

- You will receive a temporary paper license.
Your plastic license will be mailed to you.

